

Compassion That Compels™ Commitment Card

I am proud to serve as a Compassion That Compels™ volunteer. In this service, I promise to:

Treat all bag recipients and their family members, medical teams and staff, and other volunteers with respect and kindness, regardless of their cultural, socioeconomic, religious, and personal lifestyle choices and conditions. I will not attempt to recommend changes to their lifestyle, religion, or treatment.

Speak with respectful language, avoiding profanity and sexual, negative or hurtful words or behavior.

Dress appropriately according to the Compassion That Compels™ Volunteer Handbook.

Not act as a volunteer while under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.

Not volunteer when I am feeling unwell in any way, or on medication to treat a contagious illness.

Ask the bag recipient if I can talk with them a while, and pray with them. I will respect their wishes. I will not touch, hug, or hold a patient's hands without permission. Although we are Christian organization, I will serve and respect the wishes of all cancer patients.

Be on time and fully prepared. I will respect the time of bag recipients, medical staff, and volunteers.

Meet my commitments. If an emergency prohibits me, I will notify the appropriate person (volunteer or staff member).

If delivering a bag in an infusion center or hospital, I will stay out of the way of the staff as they administer care. I will comply with all center or hospital rules.

Value the privacy of the patient, staff, volunteers and all involved in the process of volunteering. Any information that I overhear or see is confidential and will not be repeated. All of my actions will adhere to strict HIPAA guidelines.

Not photograph or video any Compassion That Compels™ events unless I am the designated photographer. I will not post any photos or videos to my personal social media page.

Act with compassion, grace, and hope but I will not try to diagnose or give medical advice.

Providing HOPE to women battling cancer - one Compassion Bag at a time!

Follow the additional guidelines and instructions in the Compassion That Compels™ Volunteer Handbook.

I sign this pledge hereby agreeing to comply with the above statements, to act with grace and love, and to pursue the mission of Compassion That Compels™ in all of my actions.
